

GREENSBORO HISTORY EXPLORER WALK QUESTIONNAIRE

1. What building was once a shoemaker's shop?
2. What house contained the phone company office in the 1930s and 40s?
3. What building was originally a school house?
4. When and where was the first building for the Greensboro Free Library built?
5. When did the last farm on Breezy Avenue stop being a farm?
6. Where did farmers take their grain to have it ground into flour?
7. Which building was Greensboro's first Town Hall?

Please write your answers and turn in the complete questionnaire at the library to receive your own Greensboro History book.

Name _____ Age (if under 18) _____

Phone number or Email _____

To find out more about the history of Greensboro, visit the Greensboro Historical Society in person or on the web at greensborohistoricalsociety.org or the Greensboro Free Library in person (visit our great 'Vermont' room) or at greensborofreelibrary.org

--